Where You Get To Share Your Story

Welcome to a newsletter that has you in mind!

"Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land." Hosea 4:1.

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus! I pray that all is well with you in every way possible. God keeps doing great things and He has something great in store for you! I pray that this month's edition will bless you richly.

Up to this point, we have discovered that Biblical Ignorance is like a poison or toxin, wreaking havoc in the lives of individuals, in our churches, and in our communities. And so our focus is on two things to help us better understand and deal with this problem. That is: The poison and the remedy. We have already dealt with the poison of ignorance in individuals and in churches. Now we want to deal with the effect that this poison has on our communities.

If you haven't realized it by now, our standards of morality are skewed to the point where good is evil and evil is good. Isaiah 5:20 declares, "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" My God! Our morality is wrong side up! Twisted and perverted! And this happens when we fail to know and obey the Word of God. But woe unto you that call evil good, and good evil!

We slaughter the innocent and spare the guilty. We reward the wicked while depriving the good. Divorce is made easy, adultery is looked upon lightly, fornication is simply an "affair" or "relationship," and homosexuality is just an alternative lifestyle. Lord God, have mercy on us! We need your help! We have gone away backward!

Listen! The effect of these things destroy our families and our communities. Evil, pornography, and promiscuity are allowed to spread in the name of freedom, while all the time ripping and tearing families apart. Children are deprived the kind of parenting that is their God-given right, which leads to juvenile delinquency and greater evils. This is why some kids have gone berserk. One news station once reported that "Philadelphia teens beat a 72-year-old man to death." That's madness!

I call you to consider, how the moral fabric of our nation and others in the world are becoming unraveled when "everyone does what is right in his own eyes." Judges 21:25 declared that, "In those days there was no king in Israel (no authority, no accountability): every man did that which was right in his own eyes." I write to tell you that the world has kings, princes, and presidents, and people are still doing that which is right in their own eyes. The world must be and will be judged!

Listen! I'm not angry with the secular world taking advantage of their lawful rights, but the Bible is still right and by it the world will be judged by the Righteous Judge! The Lord Himself! The law may say that something is right, but what does the Word say about it? It doesn't matter how I feel about the subject, it's obedience to His Word that will determine my soul's destination and not my opinion! If the Word of God says it is wrong, then it is wrong! No justification needed!

The poison of "Biblical Illiteracy" has infected and sickened our people, our churches, and our communities. Is there not an antidote for this poison, this toxin that is destroying us, our churches, and our communities? Yes, there is. But it requires individual effort. Stay tuned! We'll talk more about it in our next edition.

Salvation: Free at Last!

Part II

Last month I mentioned that you may be thinking about changing your life, and that God has a way of reaching us even when we are not even thinking about Him. Moreover, you may want to make a change, but you fail over and over. “The good that you would do you do not. Instead, you find yourself doing the very thing you don’t want to do.” (Romans 7:14-15).

You may know you need to stop lying...stop giving excuses; stop cursing and swearing. And maybe you come to realize, I can’t even stop scrolling! Hours go by, fixated on the foolishness; stuck on the sinful ways of others, or lured in to some false scam until your whole day has passed you by. Or maybe you get the burger king mentality. I gotta have it My way.

How can one be both? Paul says Nothing good lived in his flesh. Do you hear people say I’m a good person and wonder who they are trying to convince? God’s Word says “There is nothing good that lives in my, that is in my flesh.” Paul’s honesty about his true state is the first step to hope. Admitting the sin is the first step to release. Because if we deny our true condition, if we say it ain’t so, the bible says: “We deceive ourselves and doom ourselves to remain a slave to sin.” (I John 1:8-10). The good news is there is hope! And it is in the Word of God: “But if we confess our sin, God is faithful to forgive us of our sin.” (I John 1:9).

Like Paul you may be in a miserable state...sulking around in depression, tears falling from your eyes and you don’t even know what you are crying about. Or maybe you are just tired of being tired all the time. Perhaps it’s the slavery of alcohol that lures you into addiction, or the slavery of vaping and smoking. Are you enslaved to a Jezebel...or enslaved to a pimp...or could you be enslaved to the casino or to that mirror? Cast all that care on Him because he cares for you.

It could be your thoughts: What who said. What who did, or didn’t do. Maybe you are obsessed with what THEY think about you. Or maybe it’s the pornographic enslavement of your mind.

Paul writes: “I find a law that evil is present WITH me, even if I want to do good. There’s a war raging within. This law of the flesh wages against the war in your mind and brings you to captivity in sin. So even though you want to do right, even though you want to do good; evil will press on every side. So that the good that you would do, that’s not what you do, instead it’s the sin that you keep on doing.” (Romans 7:14-21).

What can you do? You need a new plan, Stan. Restore your joy, Roy; Get life back, Jack, and get yourself free! The only wages a slave has...the only hope slavery offered was a good death. The wage of continued sin is death...but the free gift of God is eternal life. (Romans 6: 23-24).

Paul discovered that the only answer to this miserable condition was Jesus Christ. Like Paul you ought to say: Who can set me free? Who can take these shackles off my feet? Listen to the words of the song: “Shacked by a heavy burden, beneath a load of guilt and woe. But then the hand of Jesus touched me and now I am no longer the same.

You can be renewed in your Spirit through the power of your confession. Speak the weakness or the sin to GOD. Let Him know it bothers you. Let Him know you realize that only He can make the pain go away. Only He can deliver you from this captivity, from this battlefield in your mind.

Paul ends Romans 7 by saying “Thanks be to God, that we are set free from the law of sin and death by the blood of Jesus.” And he declares in Romans 8:1, “And now there will be no condemnation.”

The debt of sin that we owed...Jesus paid it all. It was all nailed to a cross on a hill called Calvary.

Cast Off Your Doubt: You Are Qualified for This

“Then Moses said to the Lord, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.” Exodus 4:10 (NKJV)

God has designed each of us for a specific purpose. He has told some of us what our specific purpose is; and for others He is still working on us to fulfill our specific purpose. We must understand that God will not give us or tell us to do something we were not already qualified to do. We must be firm in our faith and know that Our Heavenly Father has designed us with greatness in mind.

The enemy's job is to get us to believe that we are not qualified or we are not worthy enough to do the work God has commanded us to do. The enemy will place so much doubt in our mind that we could possibly question ourselves on if we are really God's child. We may think, how can God create someone who is not capable of doing something as simple as saying, “I love and forgive you because God has commanded me to?”

We get so lost in what the world has determined who can be qualified for this or for that. We forget that it is God who has made this world and everyone within it. How can “man” determine who is qualified? How can “man” be over God?

Short Answer: MAN CANNOT JUSTIFY WHO IS OR IS NOT QUALIFIED TO DO THE WORK OF GOD. GOD HAS THE ULTIMATE SAY AND HE HAS DEEMED YOU QUALIFIED.

God had hand-picked Moses to be the one to deliver the children of Israel from Egypt. Moses, like most of us, came up with every excuse for why he was not qualified. God had to remind Moses, did I not make man. If God created us, then He placed what was necessary for us to do the work that He had created for us to do. God knew who we were before we were even formed in our mother's womb. He knew what we would and would not do before we started walking in our purpose.

Today is the day we cast off all doubt and fear and walk in what God has commanded us to do. It is time to tell the enemy or anyone else who tells us we are under qualified that God has QUALIFIED me for this. God has QUALIFIED me for this position. God has QUALIFIED me to write and publish the book. God has QUALIFIED me to start the business. God has QUALIFIED me to run that marathon. God has QUALIFIED me to speak before millions on the Good News of Jesus Christ.

When we say God has QUALIFIED us, we must believe in our hearts and minds. This cannot be a simple quote we put on a T-shirt; but this must be our War Cry before all those who try to get us to question our qualification in God. Let today be the day where we stand strong in our faith and believe that we have been QUALIFIED by God to do all and more that He has for us to do.

GOD HAS QUALIFIED ME!!! GOD HAS QUALIFIED ME!!! GOD HAS QUALIFIED ME!!!

Focus on the Marriage & Family - "Love One Another" (Part 9)

And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you. ~ 1 Thessalonians 3:12

In the last article, I encouraged you to stay "woke" and expanded the concept to marriage and family relationships. In this article, I would like to direct your attention to the core of the whole matter at hand. The core of the family is being negatively altered and decimated by our "new" culture. In general, change is good. Unfortunately, the change our country is legislating and promoting is not good. In fact, it is downright evil. Stay woke and let not evil take residence in your home.

Make no mistake about it, for marriage and family relations to work, the foundation must be rooted in love. Bear in mind, that I said love, not lust. Eventually, lust will turn into rust. Paul urged the Thessalonians to love one another (1 Thessalonians 3:12). However, the details of "how" to love are not explained in this particular scripture. What love looks like in action is explained in my wife's favorite passage of scriptures, 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 (TLB).

"Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, (5) never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong. (6) It is never glad about injustice, but rejoices whenever truth wins out. (7) If you love someone, you will be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You will always believe in him, always expect the best of him, and always stand your ground in defending him."

The question is, "How do we apply these scriptures?" Hint...whenever you take scriptures from paper to practice, don't over complicate it. Let me demonstrate using the table below.

Advice for Married Couples

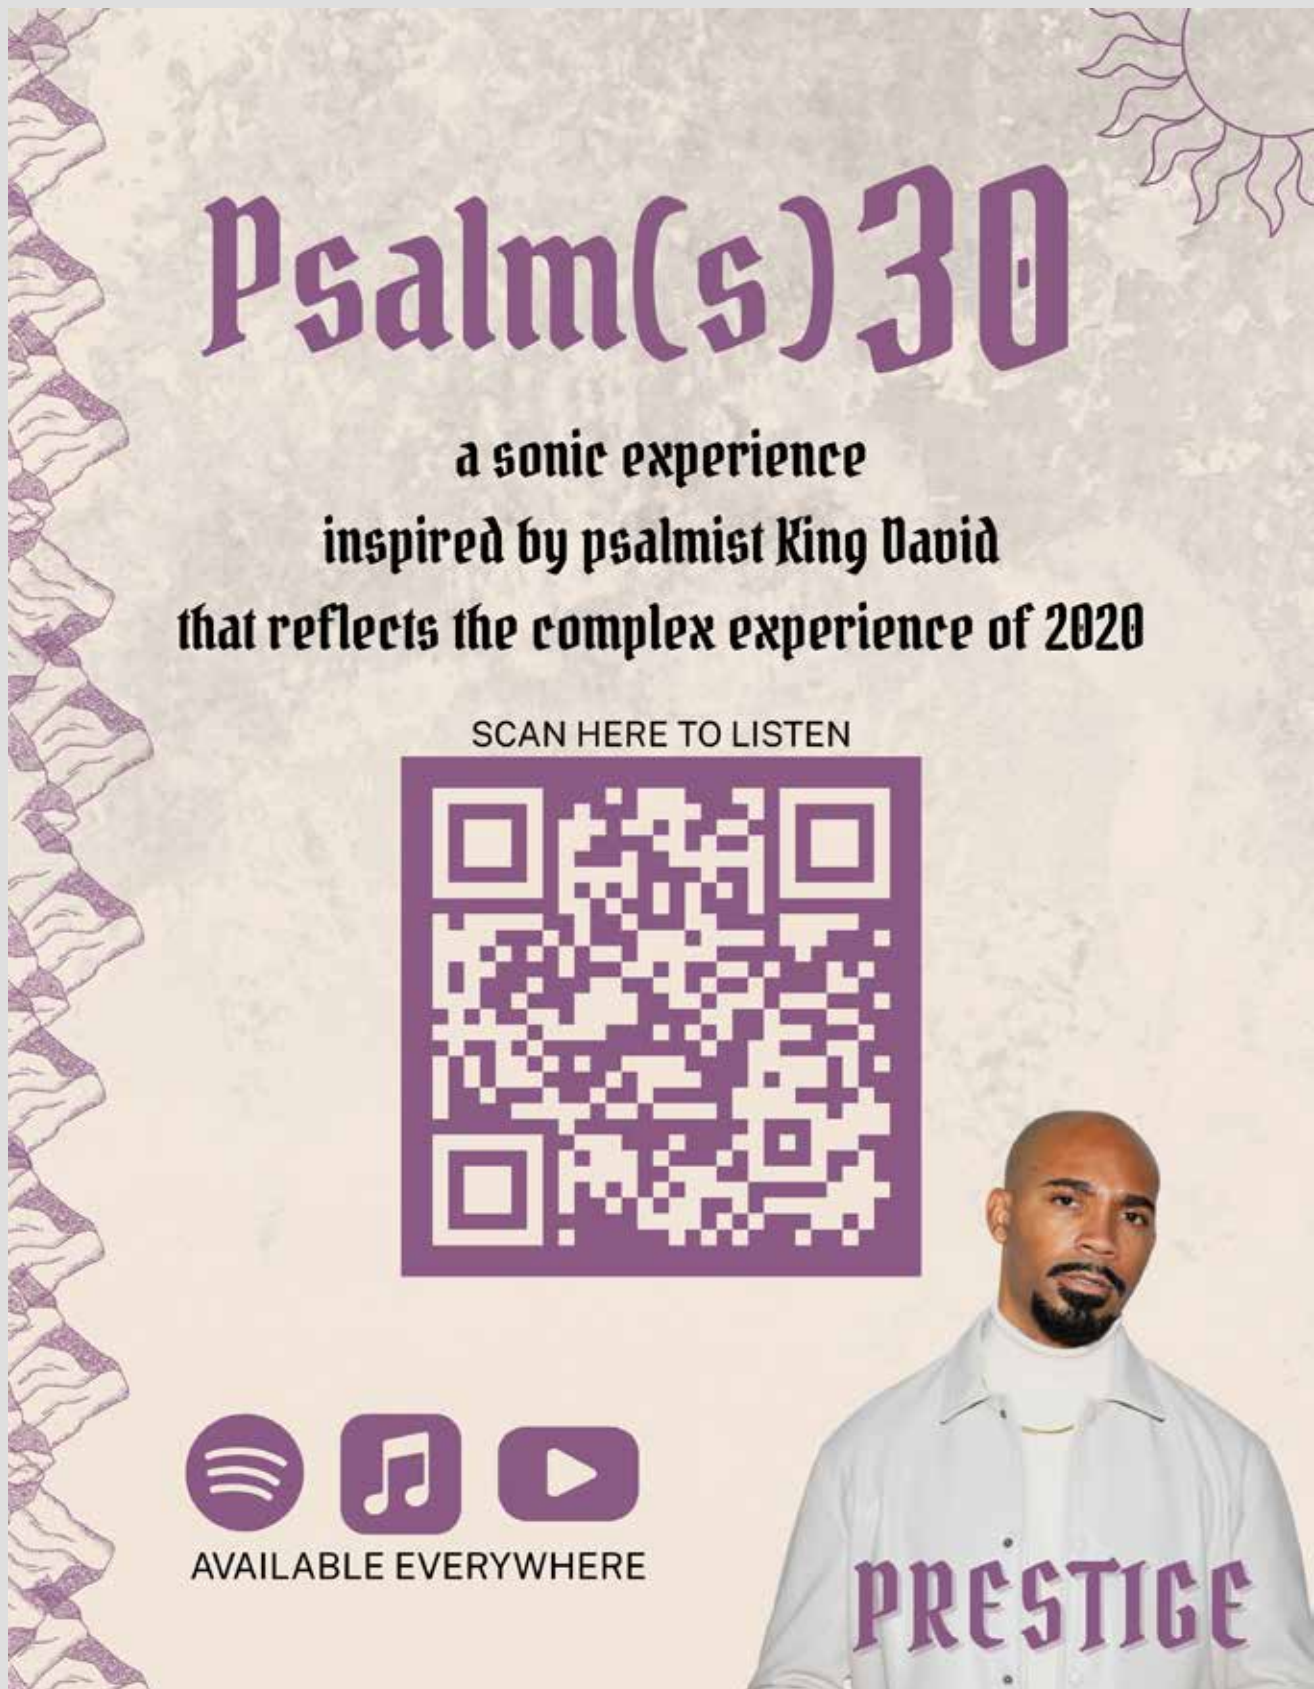

Be patient with each other	Never be jealous or envious (spiteful)
Be kind to each other	Never be arrogant
Always tell the truth; be honest	Never be selfish or rude
Be loyal; support each other	Never be bully
Always expect the best of each other	Do not be irritable (grouchy) or oversensitive
Always have each other's back	Do not hold grudges or be bitter

You see, "real love is never rude; it is full of grace and charm. It does not behave unseemly (inappropriately). It does not go around hurting others' feelings. It always uses tact and politeness whenever possible. Love never demands its rights, but seeks its responsibilities toward others. It is not self-centered or self-assertive. Love does not fly off the handle. It does not lose its temper quickly. It is not easily exasperated at people. Love does not keep score in order to repay wrong for wrong. It forgives the evil that people do to it. It does not carry a grudge. Love is our participation in God's nature. Love is the only foundation for a joyful, fulfilling, and sustainable relationship." (Reference: Power for Living, Church of God in Christ, March-May edition, 2025)

So, I say to you "LOVE ONE ANOTHER." "For God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." (1 John 4:16).

Parting Words from The Publisher

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” John 14:6.

Yes, many are teaching and preaching that there is more than one way to get to God the Father. Not true! Jesus declared that the way is through Him, the only way! So don't be deceived by false preachers and teachers. Christ died for our sins!

Well, we are headed into the summer months. Summer officially starts on June 20, 2025. Many of you will be traveling and taking vacations. Whatever the case, plan carefully and be safe. While you are at it, take along this newsletter for encouragement. It will do you good! Enjoy!

Articles for this month are spiritually hot! Pastor Christian hands off the final segment of Salvation: Free at Last Part 2, where she speaks strongly against serving sin! The law of the Spirit of life in Christ has made us free from the law of sin and death. Sister Brown encourages us to remove all doubt as to whether or not we are qualified to do the Lord's work. After all, He works in us both the will and to do of His good pleasure. Dr. Butler takes us further into the marriage and family relations with emphasis on love. If we know God, then we must love one another! Electrifying and soul-stirring articles! Don't forget to share!

Please keep in mind that we are striving to make a difference in the lives of others. Again, we can only do so much without your help. We don't have any gimmicks or anything to offer you in exchange for your support, other than the love of God and our sincere gratitude. Please take the time to make a monetary contribution to our mission work. Visit our website at: www.voices-of-victory.com. There you will find a PayPal link to make a contribution. You can also use our Cash App: $vovictory. Make this your season to seed into this ministry. Thank you so very much!

Remember, we are striving to bring you the best in gospel content while building a holistic ministry. Continue to look for articles on family, health, wellbeing, and finance. 3 John 1:2 declares, “Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.” Until our next edition, send us your story for publication. It will bless the hearts of many. Contact us at admin@vovnf.org. WJM
